COMMITTEES

Many opportunities for active involvement in the AlabamaGermany Partnership are available through participation in various committees.

- Education

Committee supports German language courses in Alabama schools and universities; sponsors lectures and presentations related to Germany; and encourages exchange programs of students, teachers and others.

- Cultural Relationships

Committee explores opportunities to promote and publicize the cultural heritage of Germany and German-related events taking place in Alabama.

- Communications

Committee publicizes major events of the Partnership with local and statewide media and disseminates information regarding Partnership activities via a periodic newsletter and a website.

- Business Development

Committee acts as a liaison with local and statewide organizations engaged in direct investment and trade opportunities with Germany.

- Membership/Program Development

Committee actively recruits new members and provides services for existing Membership.
