

REHAU – Trust. Reliability. Innovation. Join over 20,000 employees at more than 170 locations worldwide and set standards in terms of quality, function and sustainability with us in the automotive industry.

Experience the fascinating automotive world with us!

---

STUDENT INTERNSHIP LOGISTICS / PACKAGING

In our Technical Center Automotive in Cullman, AL, from June until August 2019

---

Role & Responsibilities

- Support the assembly and logistics engineer in multiple automotive vehicle launches
- Create packaging and assembly work instructions
- Conduct capability study for new equipment
- Support pre-production builds
- Conduct preliminary time studies
- Track incoming assembly equipment and packaging against schedules
- Attend project meetings
- Keep assembly/packaging supplier database current
- Schedule, hold, and document packaging reviews
- Review supplier packaging data sheets
- Support plant lean activities
- Audit preparation work as needed
- Track actual vs planned expenditure

What we are looking for:

A motivated and dependable student (male or female) with the following attributes:

- Completion of two years Engineering degree
- Spread sheet, Word processing, PowerPoint
- Understanding and knowledge of lean manufacturing
- Understanding of manufacturing and logistics principles

What we offer:

- Opportunity to apply theoretical and analytical skills
- Gain experience in the fast moving Automotive world
- Positive and diverse working environment
- Team-oriented atmosphere
- Competitive compensation

---

Please apply online at <https://careersenushr-rehau.icims.com> no later than May 15, 2019. If you have any questions about the position please contact Emily Tidmore at (256) 737-3026 ext. 3223.